

ACADEMIC

OFFICER

ABOUT THE ROLE

The Academic Officer is principally charged with the academic representation, primarily to the University, but to other relevant bodies as well. They coordinate the academic representation system.

The Academic officer will actively monitor higher education issues on the local and national scale and will attend University meetings to represent students' views on academic issues. They will liaise regularly with other full time Officers, senior University staff, Union departments and University departments in order to recognise and respond to emerging educational/academic needs for students of the University of Wolverhampton.

AYO FALANA

EDUCATION FOR ALL.

- ▶ My main priority is continuing raising awareness to the University to incorporate employability into all modules across the university to improve our DHLE rating.
- ▶ I will make sure the student's interest is validated on the Teaching Excellent Framework by validating their voice on panels and University Board meetings.
- ▶ Ensure that the students' best interests are protected and promoted across all University of Wolverhampton activities, initiatives, projects and to ensure policies are applied correctly such as Academic misconduct policy, Extenuation policy, Timetable Policy.
